Kammerlock Wins Junior Provincial Spot

The junior men's rural zone playdowns were held in Selkirk on Nov. 23-26, 2000. Three teams competed for the chance to compete in the provincial championships to be held in Winnipeg, Jan. 11-15, 2000. It was the Beausejour team skipped by Dan Kammerlock with Justin Richter playing third, second Scott McCamis and lead Ian Schillberg taking the honours.

The Quinn Adams team from Selkirk won the junior women's competition to also advance to the provincial championships.

Congratulations to both the Dan Kammerlock and the Quinn Adams teams. Good luck in the provincial finals.

Men's Zone 2 Play Down Results

This year the Safeway Select men's zone 2 play down was held in Beausejour on Dec. 7-10, 2000. There were 16 teams competing for a spot in the Safeway Select. Murray Woodward, Ste Anne defeated Garth Light of Springfield 7-3 to win in the A/B final. Woodward scored 3's on ends 4 and 7. Woodward will proceed to the Safeway Select in Selkirk.

The Eight-ENDER New Year's Eve Bash

The Beausejour Curling Club is organizing the New Year's Eve Bash this year at the Brokenhead River Rec. Complex. The band "Yours Truly" will provide the entertainment with the festivities beginning at 8 PM.

A hot late lunch consisting of perogies, cabbage rolls, meatballs, coleslaw, buns, etc...will be provided. Tickets are priced at $20 each or $17.50 each if purchased before December 15, 2000. Tickets are available at the curling club bar or Crosstown Convenience. This will be a major fundraiser for the curling club so please come out and have a good time.

Volunteers are required to help out at the door, selling drink tickets, making and serving the hot lunch, etc... This time will be credited towards your club volunteer requirements (performance bond). See Jarrett Powers to sign up.
