Zone Junior Champions - Quinn, Hollee, Holly and Leigh

Congratulations to the Junior Women's foursome skipped by Quinn Adams including Hollee Fuerst (Third), Holly Ticknor (Second) and Leigh Adams (Lead) for winning the junior zone competition on Nov. 28th. The Adams rink beat out another local team, consisting of Michelle Wadelius (Skip), Amber Lidster (Third), Andrea Bakstad (Second) and Nicole Wadelius (Lead), to take the title.

The team along with their coach Dennis Adams will travel to The Pas to compete in the provincial competition on Jan. 13-16, 2000.

To help with expenses, the team is organizing a Chinese auction for the evening of Dec. 17. It will coincide with the Friday mixed curling. Please plan to attend to help our junior women's team reach their goal of winning the provincial title.

Good luck, girls!

Directors List - continued...

Councillor Glenn Lowery's name was inadvertently missed from the Director's list in the last newsletter. Glenn is our representative from the Town of Beausejour. Sorry Glenn!

Winners of the Name this Newsletter Contest

Congratulations to the Tuesday night men's team of Dave Bush, Howie Litke, Bob Rondeau and Trevor Szajewski for naming this newsletter. The team will receive a free round of drinks compliments of the Beausejour Curling Club.

Humour...

The Sunday Draw:

All people who curl instead of going to church meetings will be glad to know that curling is a legitimate religious activity, with scriptural sanction. For example, the Bible ...

- speaks to the beginner who is assigned as Lead:

"He that is without sin among you, let him cast the first stone." (John 8:7)

- urges the Second whose Lead has drawn two stones into the house:

"Be thou a guard unto them." (Ezekiel 38:7)

and, as his Skip throws a take-out, exhorts him to use his broom with a personal resolution:

"I will sweep with the besom of destruction." (Isaiah 14:23)

- describes the Vice(-skip)'s shots:

"The rocks are thrown down by him." (Nahum 1:6)

and notes the remarks of surprise and joy made by his Skip:

"Behold he smote the rock" (Psalm 78:20)

"Their rock is removed out of place." (Job 14:8)

- makes only one comment about the activity of the Skip:
"Why stand ye here all the day idle?" (Matthew 20:16)

New Year's Eve Party

Tickets are still available for the New Year's Eve party at the Hall. The curling club could make a bit of profit from this event if all tickets are sold. Tickets are $45 each and are available from the Bar or from Glen Wilgosh. See poster in lounge for more details.

Volunteer Opportunities

Volunteers are required to work the bar and canteen during bonspiels and other events. Sign-up sheets will be posted in the lounge area. Please check the board often to sign-up.

Blueprint Curling Rocks

Our ice-maker Greg Ewasko will be blueprinting the curling rocks on Dec. 28-29, 1999. He requires some volunteers to assist him. By blueprinting the rocks, Greg will be able to better match the rocks to provide consistent rock action on each sheet. Please contact Greg if you can help out.

Grey Cup Pool Results

Congratulations to the winners of the Grey Cup Pool and thanks to all members who sold tickets. The winners list has been posted in the lounge and on the bulletin board in the lower area.

Special thanks to Michele for her generosity and for providing this fund raising opportunity!

New Millennium Fun 'Spiel

community event and is open to anyone from the community. Admission is free. Just show up at the curling club prior to 4PM to curl. Bring a team or if you don't have a team, you will be placed on one. For more info contact Robert Lidster.
